

Message from President

Dear Colleagues,

On behalf of the Royal College of Otolaryngologists-Head and Neck Surgeons of Thailand as the Organizing Committee. It is a great honor for us to host this outstanding IFHNOS World Tour 2008 for Region 8 (Southeast Asian Countries) in Bangkok. I would heartedly like to invite all of you to participate in this World's most invaluable congress in head and neck oncology.

The congress will be held during October 23-25, 2008 at Queen's Park Convention Hall 1, Imperial Queen's Park Hotel, the biggest and most luxurious hotel in Bangkok. It is located in the center of the City on the Sukhumvit, the main popular road with all day and night facilities. The Hotel is also easily accessed by the BTS sky train (Prom-Pong Station).

According to the Scientific Program, the renowned Touring Faculties as well as excellent Regional Experts will provide you the up-to-date and fruitful knowledge in various fields on head and neck oncology you also can share you expertise with your friends and also the leading experts.

More than the scientific session, you should find the opportunities to explore the incomparable beauty of Bangkok and other parts of Thailand. We can state that Thailand is in the heart of the Southeast Asia and can be the gateway to Laos, Cambodia, Myanmar, Vietnam and Southern China. On the contrary, from that of the mountains and forests of the North to that of the tropical islands and long beaches of the south, it creates several varieties of unique cultures, friendly people and beauties of Thailand.

Looking for the City of Angel, Bangkok, with its long and fascinating history as the capital of Thailand, boasts the country's most beautiful palaces, temples and museums. The city is also known for its excellent cuisine, great hospitality and unlimited shopping opportunities.

Finally, I would like to take this occasion to welcome all the ASEAN colleagues to this well-prepared congress. I believe you will enjoy the scientific meeting and life-long memorable experiences in Bangkok and Thailand.
